

Do you need a TV Licence?

You need to be covered by a TV Licence to:

- a) watch or record live TV programmes on any channel, and
- b) download or watch BBC programmes on iPlayer.

This could be on any device, including a TV, desktop computer, laptop, mobile phone, tablet, games console, digital box or DVD/VHS recorder.

If you do any of the above without a valid licence, you risk prosecution and a maximum penalty of up to £1,000*, plus any legal costs and/or compensation you may be ordered to pay. You will also still have to buy a TV Licence if you need one.

To find out more, go to tvlicensing.co.uk/info

Please see 'How to buy a TV Licence' below for different ways to pay.

*The maximum fine is £2,000 in Guernsey.

Only watching non-UK satellite programmes?

You still need a licence, even if you only watch or record programmes broadcast from outside the UK.

Moved home recently?

If you have moved home and have a licence for your old address, please tell us by visiting tvlicensing.co.uk/moving or by calling 0300 790 6044.

Don't need a licence?

You don't need a TV Licence if you never watch or record live TV programmes on any channel or device, and never download or watch BBC programmes on iPlayer.

Please tell us you don't need a licence by going to tvlicensing.co.uk/noTV, calling 0300 790 6044 or writing to Customer Services, TV Licensing, Darlington DL98 1TL. We may confirm this with a visit.

If you have sight problems, you can get this information by email or in Braille, large print or audio by calling 0300 790 6076.

If you are deaf, hard of hearing or speech impaired, we support the Next Generation Text (NGT) Service. For more information see tvlicensing.co.uk/accessibility

Could you get a concession?

Are you, or is someone you live with:

• Aged 75 or older, and receiving Pension Credit?

You can apply for a free TV Licence. You need to be receiving Pension Credit in your name, or this can be in your partner's name if you are a couple and living at the same address.

74 years old and receiving Pension Credit? You can apply for a free TV Licence now, plus a short-term licence to cover you until your 75th birthday.

If you live in the Channel Islands or Isle of Man, different conditions may apply.

• Blind (severely sight impaired)?

You may be eligible to apply for a 50% concession. You can complete and print out an online application form at tvlicensing.co.uk/blind and send it to us along with a copy of your document of blind registration or a certificate from your ophthalmologist. You'll also need your licence number, phone number and cheque payment. Please post to TV Licensing, Blind Concession Group, Darlington DL98 1TL.
